If you have a special event coming up, you are probably looking for the perfect dress to wear. How you feel can be greatly affected by what you are wearing. If you find the perfect dress, you are going to feel like a million bucks. In turn, you will be more likely to have a great time. Luckily, there are many great places to look for dresses for special occasions.

You can look in any number of retail stores for dresses for special occasions, but you should do a few things before you go. Decide what you are looking for, and that may help you narrow down where you go shopping. This will save you a lot of time, effort, and frustration. Match the color and style to the type of event you are planning to attend, and go from there. If you don't feel like trekking through numerous stores in your search for dresses for special occasions, you can begin by looking online. A search should yield you unlimited places from which to choose. You don't even have to buy online, you can just browse through each store and have a look at their selection. If you find something you like, you can then visit that store and try a few on.

If you find dresses for special occasions online, and you like what you see, you can order and have it delivered to your home within a few days. The downside is that you don't have a chance to try the dress on before you buy, but you may find something at an incredible price that you just cannot pass up. You may also find dresses for special occasions that you cannot find in retail stores.

Don't forget about eBay. They have a huge selection of dresses for special occasions, and many of them are new. You can narrow your search down by size, color, style, and designer. You can also find discounted dresses that might be irregular, but otherwise new. If you choose an irregular dress, make sure you know what the irregularity is before you buy. In many cases, it's a matter of a few missed stitches that no one will notice. Just make sure it's not a tear down the back of the dress.

If you are strapped for cash, consider buying a used dress. There are many available online that have only been worn once, and can be had for an amazing price. This can be a great way to find dresses for special occasions like the prom or even a wedding dress. As with irregular dresses, make sure you can see the condition of the garment, and you ask about any stains or rips before you buy.
